

16 The Renowned History of fuch a poor little ragged Girl as Margery, and fuch a dirty little curl-pated Boy as Tommy. Our Relations and Friends feldom take Notice of us when we are poor; but as we grow rich they grow fond. And this will always be the Cafe, while People love Money better than Virtue, or better than they do God Almighty. But fuch wicked Folks, who love nothing but Money, and are proud and difpife the Poor, never come to any good in the End, as we fhall fee by and by.

CHAP. II.

How and about Mr. Smith.

MR. Smith was a very worthy Clergyman, who lived in the Parifh where Little Margery and Tommy

GOODY TWO-SHOES. 17

Tommy were born; and having a Relation come to fee him, who was a charitable good Man, he fent for thefe Children to him. The Gentleman ordered Little Margery a new Pair of Shoes, gave Mr. Smith fome Money to buy her Cloathes; and faid, he would take Tommy and make him a little Sailor; and accordingly had a Jacket and Trowfers made for him, in which he now appears. Pray look at him.

B

After